

OUR ISLAND CONTEMPORARIES

A Hard Act.

The Workmen's Compensation law is a corker and the small employer who has only a few employees under him is going to feel the new act in a very unpleasant manner. And the employee is also going to feel the effects of the act for it will work out that the employer will not see his way clear to give any increase in wages that might, without the compensation act, have been on the boards.

The employer in a small way of business is going to feel the effects of the act severely, and it is going to cost him considerable money for providing insurance and bonds against accidents to his help. The large employer of labor will not feel the bill so much, but it has always been that way when it comes to legislation in these islands.—Hawaii Herald.

Why Not?

Why not send mainlanders for territorial judges? Surely all the competent legal material in mainland Democracy was not exhausted when we got Stuart, McCann and J. Wesley Thompson. There must be some more good ones floating around somewhere. Why not take a look in that good old Democratic State of Georgia? The judicial temperament is there, if any where.—Advertiser.

Telephone Tolls.

The fact that the telephone rates for private and party lines are to be reduced next month is pleasing to learn. And it is all the more pleasing because the company was not forced to make any such reduction. It shows the good sense of the directors, who know that to reduce the monthly charge for telephones will result in many more phones being installed.

The country toll idea is a good one and will result in the eliminating of so many "Line is busy" replies from central. In the past, some people with nothing of importance to say, used to hang onto a wire for half an hour at a stretch and prevent somebody with an important—perhaps life and death—message from getting connection with the person desired. The toll system for the outside districts will surely cut out a lot of useless talk that always went on in the past under the old system.—Hawaii Herald.

After all it must be noted that the man who attacked Mr. J. P. Morgan uncovered the fact that the financier is even now engaged in floating a loan of a half billion dollars for the warring nations of Europe, the money to be used for the purchase of guns, ammunition and war supplies in the United States. Let us be honest with ourselves: Is this business of Mr. Morgan "strict neutrality"?—Garden Island.

Moving picture houses are now running full blast on Sunday evenings. Evidently the people did want Sunday movies after all.

Many people will sign a peace petition to the President of the United States telling him what to do who would not dream of even suggesting to the manager of a plantation how he should conduct his property.—Hilo Tribune.

Kuiaha Homesteaders Picnic at Makawao

A most thoroughly enjoyable picnic arranged by the ladies of the Kuiaha homesteads was held last Saturday at the delightful Hannestad place, on the mountain above Makawao. The picnickers drove up in the morning, and it was late in the afternoon before anyone was ready to start for home. The lunch was served beneath the trees, and later most of the party spent the time in exploring this exceptionally beautiful locality. The weather was ideal.

Those who were in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Hannestad, Mrs. Kolb, Miss Hannestad, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Wells, Mrs. McConkey, Mrs. Chester Livingston, Mrs. Stanley Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Krauss, Mr. George Lindsay, Mr. James Lindsay, Mr.

Hood, Mr. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Miss Florence Wood, Mrs. Bartlett, Miss Estelle Roe, Miss Crook, Sanford Walker, Walter Walker, Pauline Wells, Irene Wells, Douglas Wells, Virginia McConkey, Dorothy Hair, Margaret Hair, Doris Hair, Beatrice Krauss, Fred Krauss, Noel Krauss, Dorothea Krauss, Donald Livingston, Thelma Boyum, Evelyn Webster, and George Sauters.

A DINNER PARTY.

A very pleasant dinner party was given on Thursday evening at the home of Hugh Howell, in Wailuku, in honor of his daughter, Miss Ethel Howell, who is home from Berkeley for the vacation. Those present were: Mrs. Cora Gossin, Miss Turner, Miss Drinkle, Miss Edings, Miss Howell, Mrs. Annie Howell, Judge Edings, Mr. A. C. Rattray, Mr. Will J. Cooper, and Mr. Hugh Howell.

On the Other Islands

Stanford Fielder Breaks Neck.

Following injuries received while diving at the beach in front of the Outrigger Canoe Club, last Saturday evening, in which he suffered a fracture of the skull and a broken neck, Russell F. Downing, centerfielder of the University of Stanford baseball team, died at the Queen's Hospital Sunday morning at twenty minutes to eight o'clock.

The deceased was a native of Los Gatos, Santa Clara County, California. He was twenty-one years of age and graduated from the university in May shortly before coming to Honolulu with his team.

Honolulu Has Quiet Election.

Forty Republicans, nineteen Democrats, two Progressives and two Home Rulers will constitute the personnel of the charter convention elected in the special election in Honolulu on Tuesday. The convention will meet September 7. The election was a very quiet affair.

Fullway Now With Territory.

David P. Fullway, entomologist at the United States experiment station, has left the service to enter that of the Territory. He will devote himself to finding a parasite to fight the melon fly, one of the bad insects of the Territory.

Mr. Fullway resigned from the federal service because a new leave of absence could not be given. He had had two leaves of a year each, with only one month interlude, on work for the Territory, the last being a search for a fruit fly parasite.

This has been found, and he returned to the federal service, but the Territory wanted him again. He may return to the federal service when he finishes his work for the Territory.

Promotion Nominees.

George H. Vickers has been nominated by the Hilo Board of Trade and the Hawaii supervisors as the man Hawaii on the Hawaii Promotion Committee in Honolulu. Kauai has nominated D. P. R. Isenberg as its representative.

Luna Attacked By Filipino.

Brutally attacked by a Filipino laborer with a hoe, Hugh Robertson, a luna on the Paauilo plantation, was seriously wounded on Monday, June 21. Robertson is now in the Hilo Hospital with two bad skull fractures. Although his condition is serious it is believed he will recover unless unexpected complication result from the wounds.
